Topic-wise · Fully Explained · Hinglish · SSC / BPSC / BSSC / Railway

Topics in this chapter:

1. Tilaiya, Maithon, Belpahari — Barakar River Dams
2. Damodar — 'River of Sorrow' (Assertion-Reason)
3. DVC Establishment & India's First Multipurpose Project

| 1. Tilaiya, Maithon, Belpahari — Barakar River Dams

- Tilaiya Dam Barakar river (Koderma district, Jharkhand) par hai — 1953 mein complete, length ~366m. Maithon, Belpahari aur Tilaiya teeno Barakar river (Damodar ki main tributary) par bane the — Damodar Valley Project ke first phase mein. [Q1, Q2]

| 2. Damodar — 'River of Sorrow' (Assertion-Reason)

- Damodar river ko DVC se pehle 'River of Sorrow' ya 'Sorrow of Bengal' kaha jaata tha (Assertion sahi) kyunki upper reaches mein rapidly aur lower reaches mein sluggishly behti thi — isse major floods aur sedimentation hoti thi (Reason sahi explanation hai). [Q3]

| 3. DVC Establishment & India's First Multipurpose Project

- Damodar Valley Corporation (DVC) 1948 mein establish hui thi (Act No. XIV of 1948) — 7 July 1948 ko India ki pehli multipurpose river valley project ban gayi. DVC West Bengal aur Bihar (ab Jharkhand) mein operate karta hai — 1947 tak Central, WB, Bihar governments ke beech agreement ho chuka tha. [Q4, Q5]
