1. Alauddin Khalji — Titles, Ambitions & Absolute Power

- Alauddin Khalji ek ambitious emperor the — unhone 'Sikandar-i-Sani' (doosra Alexander) ki title li aur ise apne coins par bhi print karwaya. Unki mahatvakanksha thi poori duniya jeetna aur ek nayi religion bhi introduce karna — lekin apne khaas dost aur Kotwal 'Alla-ul-Mulk' ki salah par unhone ye idea chhod diya. [Q1, Q2]
- Historian Ziauddin Barani ne Alauddin Khalji ke baare mein likha: 'Jab unhe Kingship mili, wo rulers aur Shariat ke orders se kaafi independent the.' Unhone religion ko politics se alag kiya aur clear kiya ki state ka interest supreme hai, Ulemas ke dictates nahi. [Q3]

2. Malik Kafur — 'Hazar Dinari' & the Deccan Campaigns

- Malik Kafur ko 'Hazar-Dinari' kaha jaata tha — Alauddin Khalji ke general Nusrat Khan ne Gujarat ki jeet ke dauran unhe 1,000 dinars ki price mein khareeda tha, isi se ye naam pada. [Q6, Q7]
- Malik Kafur ne 1309-1311 AD ke beech Deccan aur South India mein highly successful campaigns lead ki — unka route Devagiri, Warangal, Dwarasamudra aur Madurai tak deeply South India mein jaata tha. [Q12]

3. Alauddin's Deccan & Rajput Conquests

- Assertion-Reason: Alauddin ke Deccan expeditions financial ventures the (sahi Assertion) — Dr. K.S. Lal ke mutabik, dhan-lalach aur ghamand ki wajah se unhone South ke states par attack kiya. Unka koi intention un states ko directly Delhi Sultanate mein annex karne ka ya unke internal administration mein interfere karne ka NAHI tha (isliye Reason galat hai). [Q8]
- Ramchandra Dev, Devagiri ke Yadava ruler the jab Alauddin Khalji ne 1296 AD mein invade kiya — unhe haraya gaya aur unhone regular tribute dene ka wada kiya, lekin 1305-06 mein tribute dena band kar diya. 1307 mein Alauddin ne Malik Kafur ko dubara bheja — Ramchandra ne surrender kiya, unhe Delhi laaya gaya jaha Alauddin ne unhe 'Rai Rayan' ki title deke izzat di. [Q9]
- Kingdom-Ruler match: Ranthambore → Hamirdeva (1301 AD); Chittore → Rana Ratan Singh (1303 AD); Devagiri → Raja Rai Ramchandra (1296 & 1307 AD); Gujarat → Karnadeva (1299 AD). [Q10]

- Alauddin Khalji ki jeeto ka chronological order: Gujarat (1299 AD) → Ranthambor (1301 AD) → Chittor (1303 AD) → Warangal (1310 AD). [Q11]
- ⚠️ Trap: Warangal (Kakatiya dynasty) ke ruler Prataprudra Dev the, Ramchandra Dev NAHI (wo Devgiri ke ruler the — ye galat pair hai). Baaki pairs sahi hain: Hoysala — Veer Ballal III, aur Madurai (Pandyas) — Veer Pandya. [Q29]
- 1303 AD mein, Alauddin Khalji ki Warangal jeetne ki pehli koshish (Malik Chhajju aur Fakhruddin Juna ki leadership mein) disaster mein badal gayi — Kakatiya dynasty ke king Prataprudradev-II ne unki army ko successfully waapas bhaga diya. [Q32]

4. The Conquest of Chittor & the Legend of Padmini

- Padmini (Padmavati), Alauddin ke Chittor conquest se related hai — wo Chittor ke raja Rana Ratan Singh ki patni thi. Unki story famous epic poem 'Padmavat' mein describe hai, jo Malik Muhammad Jayasi ne 1540 AD mein likhi. Amir Khusrau ne apni text mein Suleman-Shaiba ki love story mention ki thi (Alauddin ko Suleman, Padmini ko Shaiba se compare karke) — shayad isi se inspire hokar Jayasi ne ye kahani likhi. [Q5]

5. Land Revenue Reforms

- Ek powerful autocratic state banane aur strong treasury ke liye, Alauddin Khalji ne lagbhag saare land grants cancel kar diye — jo log 'Milq' (state ke through di gayi property/prize/pension) ya 'Waqf' (charity land) le chuke the, unse ye zameen chheen li gayi. Ye sab zameen 'Khalisa land' (crown land, directly state dwara manage) mein convert kar di gayi, jisse iska scale bahut zyada badh gaya. [Q13]
- ⚠️ Multiple Correct: Land revenue ko produce ka 50% (aadha) karne wale 2 Sultans mane jaate hain — Alauddin Khalji (zameen ki proper measurement ke basis par) aur baad mein Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq (Doab region mein, lekin unka assessment estimated production par based tha, actual measurement par nahi). [Q14, Q15]
- Alauddin Khalji ne land revenue (Kharaj) ko zameen ki scientific measurement ke basis par 50% fix kiya tha — 'after measurement' ye keyword important hai, kyunki Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq ka demand estimated production par tha, actual measurement par nahi. [Q16]
- Alauddin Khalji ne cultivated land ko measure karke revenue collect ki — isi ke liye unhone ek naya department 'Diwan-i-Mustakhraj' banaya (sahi). Unki land measurement/revenue system poori empire mein applicable NAHI thi — sirf Delhi aur aas-paas ke Doab region tak limited thi. Unhone Khuts, Muqaddams aur Chaudharies jaise traditional local intermediaries ke privileges aur tax-collecting rights khatam kar diye. [Q17]

6. Market Control Reforms

- Assertion-Reason: Alauddin Khalji ne Delhi mein price control introduce ki (sahi Assertion) — historian Ziauddin Barani ke mutabik, is market reform ka mukhya maksad tha ek badi standing army ko comparatively kam salary par maintain karna, borders ki raksha ke liye — ye artisans ko kam wages dene ke liye NAHI tha (isliye Reason galat hai). [Q18]

- Alauddin Khalji ne 'Market Reforms' (price control mechanisms) successfully introduce ki — ye Sultanate period ki ek important policy initiative thi. [Q19, Q20, Q21]
- Alauddin Khalji ki market price control ki koshish highly successful rahi — unhone Delhi mein alag-alag markets banayi: Grain Market (Mandi), Clothes-Groceries market, aur ek weapons/horses ke liye alag market. Har market ek 'Shahna-i-Mandi' (superintendent) ke under thi, aur independent sources se bhi daily reports li jaati thi strict implementation ke liye. [Q22]

7. Public Distribution System & New Taxes

- Alauddin Khalji ne practically 'Public Distribution System' (Rationing system) introduce ki — Delhi mein government grain stores banaye gaye jaha Khalisa lands se anaj store kiya jaata tha, aur famine ke time public mein distribute kiya jaata tha. [Q23, Q24]
- Alauddin Khalji ne 2 nayi taxes lagayi: 'Ghari Tax' (Ghar-Tax — ghar aur huts par) aur 'Charai Tax' (Grazing Tax — doodh dene wale janwaron par). Wo pehle Sultan the jinhone Ghari (House-tax) charge ki. [Q25]

8. Mongol Invasions & Frontier Defense

- Zafar Khan, Alauddin Khalji ke famous army commander, Mongols ke against ladte hue shaheed hue — unki bahaduri aur Khalji army ki persistence se Mongols itne impress hue ki wo peeche hat gaye. Zafar Khan ka original naam Malik Yusuf Hizabruddin tha. [Q4]
- 1306 AD ke baad, Alauddin Khalji ke period mein Ravi river, Delhi Sultanate aur Mongols ke beech ki boundary ban gayi — Kabak ki leadership mein Mongols ne attack kiya tha, lekin Malik Kafur aur Ghazi Malik ne unhe Ravi river ke kinare decisively haraaya. [Q26]
- Statement check: India par pehla Mongol attack Iluttmish ke reign mein hua tha, Jalal-ud-din Khalji ke NAHI (galat statement). Alauddin Khalji ke reign mein (1299 AD), Mongol Qutlugh Khwaja Delhi tak march karke aaye jab Alauddin Chittor advance mein busy the (sahi statement). Muhammad-bin-Tughluq ke reign mein, Tarmashirin ke Mongol attack ko unhone actively peeche dhakela. [Q27]
- Mongol invasions ke constant threat ke against apni empire consolidate karne ke liye, Alauddin Khalji ne ek strong central government banayi aur ek powerful, permanent, enormous standing army raise ki jo specifically frontiers par empire ki boundaries protect karne ke liye deploy ki gayi thi. [Q28]

9. The Khalifa Question — Sovereignty & Independence

- Diye gaye options mein se kisi ne bhi Khalifa (Caliph) ki theoretical authority ko explicitly 'oppose' nahi kiya — Iluttmish ne toh formal recognition hi Khalifa se li thi. Alauddin Khalji, Balban aur Muhammad Bin Tughluq practically independent aur highly autocratic rulers the, lekin unhone kabhi khule taur par Caliph ki nominal spiritual authority ko reject nahi kiya. Sirf Qutb-ud-din Mubarak Khalji ne (jo options mein nahi the) khud ko 'Khalifa' declare karke unki authority ko oppose kiya. [Q30]
- Alauddin Khalji ki mrityu ke baad, Qutb-ud-din Mubarak Shah (Mubarak Khalji) gaddi par baithe — unhone Abbasid Caliphate ki nominal allegiance chhodkar khud ko 'Caliph' declare kar diya, 'Al Imam', 'Ul Imam' aur 'Khilafatullah' jaisi titles use ki. [Q31]
