1. Ghiyasuddin Tughluq — Founder & Agricultural Reforms

- Ghazi Malik (Alauddin Khalji ke ek commander) Tughluq dynasty ke founder aur pehle ruler the — unki maa ek Hindu Jat lady thi aur pita ek Qaraunah Turk. Alauddin ke reign mein wo chief commander the, unhone Mongols ko 29 baar chase karke haraya. Khusrau Shah ki hatya karke, 8 September 1320 AD ko wo Delhi ke Tughluq dynasty ke pehle Sultan bane. [Q1, Q2]
- Ghiyasuddin Tughluq ne farmers ki condition improve karne ke liye kai kadam uthaye — Khuts aur Muqaddams ke purane rights restore kiye, land revenue rate 1/3 fix ki, aur wo pehle Sultan the jinhe irrigation ke liye canals banwane ka credit jaata hai. [Q3]
- Tughluq dynasty ne sabse lambe samay (1320-1414 AD, 94 saal) tak raj kiya — Slave dynasty ne 84 saal (1206-1290), Khalji dynasty ne 30 saal (1290-1320), aur Lodi dynasty ne 75 saal (1451-1526) raj kiya. [Q4]

2. Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq — The Most Learned Sultan & Agrarian Experiments

- Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq (1325-1351 AD) Delhi Sultanate ke sabhi Sultans mein sabse zyada learned ruler the — unhe astronomy, mathematics, medical science aur doosri kai fields ki knowledge thi. [Q5]
- Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq ne agriculture develop karne ke liye 'Diwan-i-Amir-i-Kohi' (Diwan-i-Kohi) naam ka naya department banaya — 60 square miles ki land select ki gayi thi, aur crop rotation ke saath alag-alag crops cultivate karne ke liye agrarian reforms implement kiye gaye. [Q6, Q7, Q8]

3. The Transfer of Capital to Daulatabad

- Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq ne apni capital Delhi se Daulatabad (Devgiri) shift ki thi — ye unke sabse significant experiments mein se ek tha. Barani ke mutabik Devgiri isliye chuna gaya kyunki wo geographically empire ke center mein tha, lekin Ibn Battuta ke mutabik ye Delhi ke logo ko punish karne ke liye kiya gaya tha jinhone unke against likha tha. [Q9, Q10]

4. The Token Currency Experiment

- Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq pehle Sultan the jinhone India mein 'Token Currency' introduce ki — copper/bronze coins jinki value silver coins ke barabar rakhi gayi. Barani ke mutabik, treasury mein silver ki kami aur empire expand karne ki ambitious policies ki wajah se unhone ye kiya. Wo China ke Kublai Khan ke paper currency (Chao) jaise experiments se inspired the. [Q11, Q12]
- Assertion-Reason: Moroccan traveller Ibn Battuta ne Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq ke naye gold coins ko 'Dinar' naam diya (sahi Assertion) — lekin unki actual 'token currency' copper ya bronze mein issue hui thi (gold mein NAHI), silver ki kami door karne aur military power badhane ke liye (isliye Reason galat hai). [Q13]
- Token currency scheme, Muhammad Tughluq ke 5 major failed experiments mein se ek thi (sahi Assertion) — iski failure ki mukhya wajah ye thi ki state ke paas coins minting par koi monopoly ya proper control nahi tha, log ghar par hi forged copper/bronze coins banane lage (sahi Reason bhi, jo Assertion ko explain karta hai). [Q14]

5. Ibn Battuta's India

- Ibn Battuta (1333-1342 AD), ek African (Moorish) Moroccan traveller, Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq ke reign mein India aaye the — Sultan unki scholarship se impress hue aur unhe Delhi ka Qazi bana diya. 1342 AD mein unhe China ambassador ki tarah bheja gaya — unhone apni yatra 'Kitab-ul-Rihla' book mein describe ki. [Q15, Q16, Q17]
- Sultanate period ke postal system (horse post aur foot post) ka detailed description Ibn Battuta ke travel accounts se milta hai — unhone apni 'Kitab-ul-Rihla' book mein ye documented kiya hai. [Q18]

6. Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq — Broad-mindedness & Death

- Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq pehle Delhi Sultan the jinhone Hindu logo ke public celebrations (khaaskar Holi) mein participate kiya — unki broad-mindedness ke liye ye jaane jaate the. [Q20]
- Sultan Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq ki mrityu 20 March 1351 AD ko, Thatta (Sindh) ke pass, ek revolt kuchalne ki koshish karte hue hui. Unka reign brilliant lekin failed experiments se bhara tha jisse logo ko bahut takleef hui — unki mrityu par historian Badayuni ne apni book 'Muntakhab-ut-Tawarikh' mein likha: 'Raja apni janta se azaad ho gaya, aur janta apne raja se.' [Q19, Q21, Q22]

7. Firuz Shah Tughluq — Welfare & Charitable Measures

- Firuz Shah Tughluq ne common logo ke liye kai welfare programmes shuru kiye — unhone unemployment ki problem solve karne ke liye ek 'Employment Office' (Diwan-i-Rozgar) khola aur merit ke basis par kai qualified logo ko appoint kiya. [Q23, Q24]
- Firuz Shah Tughluq philanthropy (paropkar) ki taraf bahut jhukav rakhte the — unhone 'Diwan-i-Khairat' (Charity Department) banayi jo gareeb Muslims, orphans, aurton aur widhwao ki financial madad karti thi, aur gareeb Muslim ladkiyo ki shaadi bhi arrange karti thi. [Q25]

- Firuz Shah Tughluq ko slaves rakhne ka bahut shauk tha — unke court mein slaves ki sankhya 1,80,000 tak pahunch gayi thi. Unhone inki dekhbhal ke liye ek alag 'Diwan-i-Bandgan' department banaya — ye massive slave corps aakhir mein state ke liye nuksaandayak saabit hui. [Q26]
- ⚠️ Trap: Medieval rulers ke baare mein sahi statement: Firuz Tughluq ne slaves ke liye ek alag department ('Diwan-i-Bandgan') banayi — ye sahi hai. Galat statements: military department (Diwan-i-Arz) Balban ne shuru ki thi, Alauddin ne nahi; ghodo ki branding (Dagh) aur soldiers ka descriptive roll (Chehra) Alauddin Khalji ne introduce ki, Balban ne nahi; Firuz Tughluq, Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq ke cousin the, chacha (uncle) nahi. [Q27]
- Firuz Shah Tughluq India ke pehle ruler the jinhone State Exchequer (khazane) se Haj pilgrimage organize/subsidize ki. [Q38]
- 'Dar-ul-Shafa' (House of Healing), Firuz Shah Tughluq ne banwaya tha — ye ek free/charitable hospital tha, jisme qualified Hakeems (physicians) gareeb patients ka free ilaj, dawai aur khana dete the. [Q39]

8. Firuz Shah Tughluq — Public Works, Canals & Taxation

- Public Works Department ('Diwan-i-Imarat') mukhya roop se Firuz Shah Tughluq ne establish ki thi — wo ek great builder the, unhone ~300 nayi cities (Firozabad, Hisar, Fatehabad, Jaunpur jaisi) banayi aur kai mosques, schools, sarais (inns) banwaye. [Q28]
- Firuz Shah Tughluq India mein irrigation ke liye canals ka sabse bada network banane ke liye famous hain — unki notable canals Sutlej se Ghaggar tak, aur Yamuna se Hisar tak, Delhi-Haryana regions ki service karti thi. [Q29, Q30]
- Firuz Tughluq pehle Delhi Sultan the jinhone 'Haqq-i-Sharb' (irrigation tax) lagayi — jo farmers state-built canals ka paani apni fields ke liye use karte the, unhe apni produce ka 1/10 hissa tax ki tarah dena padta tha. [Q31]
- Firuz Shah Tughluq pehle Delhi Sultan the jinhone Brahmins par bhi 'Jizya' (non-Muslims par lagne wala religious tax) lagayi — halaki traditionally Brahmins ko isse exempt rakha jaata tha, lekin Firuz ne orthodox Islamic laws ko strictly follow karte hue ye lagu kiya. [Q32]

9. Firuz Shah Tughluq — Culture, Learning & the Ashokan Pillars

- Horticulture mein apni deep interest ki wajah se, Firuz Shah Tughluq ne Delhi ke pass 1,200 naye orchards (baagh) lagaye aur Alauddin Khalji ke time ke 30 purane gardens restore kiye — unhone fruits ki quality improve karne ke measures bhi liye. [Q33]
- Firuz Shah Tughluq, history aur ancient monuments mein apni interest ke liye jaane jaate the — unhone Topra (Haryana) aur Meerut se 2 Ashokan pillars laakar Delhi mein (Firozabad aur ek doosri jagah) carefully re-erect karwaye. [Q34, Q35]
- Firuz Shah Tughluq ne ek 'Translation Department' establish ki thi — iska mukhya maksad important texts (khaaskar Sanskrit se Persian) translate karna tha, taaki Hindu aur Muslim dono communities ek doosre ko behtar samajh sakein. [Q36]
- Nagarkot (Kangra) ki apni expedition ke dauran, Firuz Shah Tughluq ne Jawalamukhi temple library se ~1300 Sanskrit manuscripts collect ki (philosophy, astrology jaise subjects par) — unhone Azizuddin Khan se inhe Persian mein translate karwaya, 'Dalail-i-Firuz Shahi' title ke under (300 volumes translate hue). [Q37]

10. The Fall of the Tughluq Dynasty

- Nasiruddin Mahmud Shah (1394-1412 AD), Tughluq dynasty ke aakhri ruler the — unke kamzor reign mein empire toot gayi, isi wajah se mazak mein kaha jaata tha ki 'Lord of the Universe ka rajya Delhi se Palam tak hi phaila hai'. Unke reign mein hi Mongol conqueror Timur ne 1398 AD mein India par devastating invasion kiya. [Q40]
- ⚠ Disputed: Timur ka India invasion 1398 AD mein, Tughlaq ruler Nasiruddin Mahmud Shah (1394-1412 AD) ke reign mein hua tha — lekin diye gaye options (Alauddin Khalji, Bahlul Lodi, Firuz Tughluq, Muhammad-Bin-Tughluq) mein se koi bhi sahi nahi hai, isliye ye question disputed hai. [Q41]
- Timur Lung (Tamerlane) ne 1398 AD mein India par attack karke Delhi ko loot-tabaah kiya. [Q42]
- Timur ke invasion (1398 AD) ne Tughluq dynasty ko fatally kamzor kar diya, jo 1412/1413 AD mein khatam ho gayi. India chhodne se pehle, Timur ne Khizr Khan ko Multan-Lahore ka apna deputy (subedar) niyukt kiya tha — 1414 AD mein Khizr Khan ne Delhi par march karke ise capture kiya aur Sayyid Dynasty ki sthapna ki. [Q43]
- Chronological order: Rukn-ud-din Firuz (1236 AD, Slave Dynasty, Iltutmish ke baad) → Mubarak Khan/Mubarak Khalji (1316-1320 AD, Khalji Dynasty) → Firuz Shah Tughluq (1351-1388 AD, Tughluq Dynasty) → Alam Shah (1445-1451 AD, Sayyid Dynasty). [Q44]
