1. The Rowlatt Act — Origins & Provisions

- Lord Chelmsford ke Viceroyalty (1916-1921) mein, 1917 mein sedition rokne ke liye Justice Rowlatt ki leadership mein ek committee appoint hui — committee ki recommendations par 'Rowlatt Act' (Anarchical and Revolutionary Crime Act) March 1919 mein pass hua. [Q1, Q3, Q6, Q7, Q12, Q39]
- Rowlatt Act ne Government ko unlimited powers di — bina trial ke suspects ko arrest-imprison karne ki. Is bill ko us waqt describe kiya jaata tha: 'No Vakil, No Appeal, No Daleel' (na koi wakil, na koi appeal, na koi plea). [Q2, Q4]
- INC ne Rowlatt Act ka virodh isliye kiya kyunki iska maksad individual liberty ko limit karna tha — bina jury decision ke certain cases try karna, aur bina fair-proper trial ke logo ko detain karna. [Q8]

2. Rowlatt Satyagraha — Gandhi's First All-India Movement

- Rowlatt Satyagraha (1919), Gandhiji ka pehla 'All-India level' movement tha — iske pehle wale movements (Champaran 1917, Ahmedabad Mill Workers 1918, Kheda 1918) sirf localized the, lekin Rowlatt Satyagraha ko society ke sabhi sections ne proactively join kiya. [Q5, Q9, Q10]
- Rowlatt Act ke against 'No Tax Campaign' shuru karne ka suggestion Swami Shraddhanand ne diya tha — non-payment of Lagaan (rent) se movement shuru karne ka idea. [Q11]

3. The Jallianwala Bagh Massacre — Events & Location

- Jallianwala Bagh (Amritsar Massacre) 13 April 1919 ko hua — ek badi crowd Punjab ke 2 famous leaders Dr. Saifuddin Kitchlew aur Dr. Satyapal ki arrest ke against protest karne ke liye ikattha hui thi, kuch log Baisakhi fair attend karne bhi aaye the. Kai villagers ko martial law ke baare mein pata bhi nahi tha. Brigadier General Dyer ne area ghera, exit points block kiye, aur crowd par goli chalaayi — hazaaron log maare gaye. [Q13, Q14, Q15, Q16, Q17, Q18, Q19, Q20]
- Events ka sahi sequence: Kitchlu-Satyapal ki arrest (9 April 1919) → Jallianwala Bagh massacre (13 April 1919) → Amritsar Congress Session (December 1919). [Q31]

- Lord Chelmsford, Jallianwala Bagh Massacre (1919) ke waqt India ke Viceroy the — unke tenure mein Government of India Act 1919 (Montague-Chelmsford Reforms, dyarchy introduce ki), Rowlatt Act, aur Non-cooperation Movement ki shuruat bhi hui. [Q37]
- Edwin Montagu (Secretary of State for India) ne Jallianwala Bagh Massacre ko 'Preventive Murder' kaha tha. [Q38]

4. Rabindranath Tagore Renounces His Knighthood

- Jallianwala Bagh incident ke baad, Rabindranath Tagore ne 30 May 1919 ko apni 'Knighthood' (Sir ki title) British Government ko wapas kar di — Governor-General ko likhi chitthi mein unhone likha: 'The time has come when badges of honour make our shame glaring in their incongruous context of humiliation.' [Q21, Q22, Q23, Q24, Q25, Q26, Q30]
- Assertion-Reason: Tagore ne apni Knighthood renounce ki, Jallianwala Bagh Massacre ke against protest ki tarah — ye sahi Assertion hai. Lekin unhone ye Non-Cooperation Movement ke support mein NAHI kiya tha (galat Reason). [Q27]

5. Shankaran Nair's Resignation

- Shankaran Nair (Sir Shankar Nair) ne Jallianwala Bagh Massacre ke protest mein Viceroy's Executive Council ki membership se resign kar diya. [Q28, Q29]

6. The Hunter Committee

- Jallianwala Bagh Tragedy ki jaanch ke liye Government ne Lord William Hunter ki leadership mein 'Disorders Inquiry Committee' banayi — 7 members the (4 British, 3 Indian). Hunter Report ne Dyer ke zyadatar decisions ki ninda ki, lekin Punjab mein martial law lagane se agree ki. Dyer ko England bhej diya gaya aur unka command hataya gaya (British Government ne unhe 'Lion of British Empire' kehkar 'Sword of Honour' bhi di). [Q32]
- Congress ki taraf se Jallianwala Bagh Massacre par ek 'Inquiry Committee Report' draft karne ki zimmedari Mahatma Gandhi ko di gayi thi. [Q36]

7. The Assassination of Michael O'Dwyer

- 13 March 1940 ko, London ke Caxton Hall mein, Udham Singh ne Michael O'Dwyer ko goli maar kar maar dala — O'Dwyer Jallianwala Bagh Massacre ke waqt Punjab ke British Lieutenant-Governor the, jinhone Dyer ke action ko approve kiya tha. Udham Singh ne khud Amritsar ke events witness kiye the. [Q33, Q34, Q35]
