Kisi bhi member ke Indian na hone ki wajah se isse boycott kiya gaya aur 'White Commission' bhi kaha gaya. Ye 3 February 1928 ko Bombay pahunchi. [Q1, Q3]

2. Reasons for the Boycott

- Assertion-Reason: Congress aur doosre political groups ne Simon Commission ka boycott isliye kiya kyunki isme Indians ko exclude kiya gaya tha (sahi Assertion) — ye Reason directly Assertion ko explain karta hai (sahi Reason bhi). [Q8]
- Simon Commission ke baare mein sabhi statements sahi hain: Government of India Act 1919 ki review ke liye banayi gayi, Sir John Simon ne head ki, Federal Government (reconstituted Central Legislature ke saath) advocate kiya, aur 'White Commission' kehkar strongly oppose ki gayi. [Q9]

3. Purpose & Recommendations

5. Lala Lajpat Rai — Injury & Death

- 1928 mein, jab Simon Commission Lahore visit ki, Lala Lajpat Rai ne 'Simon! Go Back' banners ke saath ek non-violent protest lead ki — police ne lethal lathi charge ki, jisse wo bahut zyada ghayal ho gaye aur November 1928 mein unki mrityu ho gayi. [Q12]
- Lala Lajpat Rai ko 'Punjab Kesari' (Lion of Punjab) kaha jaata hai. [Q13]
- Assertion-Reason: Lala Lajpat Rai ne protest lead ki kyunki Commission mein koi Indian representation nahi thi (sahi Assertion) — Reason directly is Assertion ko explain karta hai (sahi Reason bhi). [Q14]

- Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru aur M.R. Jayakar — Nehru Report ki committee ke key members the, jinhone Dominion Status ki demand ki thi. [Q16]
- Nehru Report ne Complete Independence NAHI, balki 'Dominion Status' recommend ki — saath hi separate electorates ko reject karke 'Joint Electorates' (minorities ke liye reserved seats ke saath) aur 'Fundamental Rights' ka provision bhi recommend kiya. [Q17]
