

CH.34 — KARACHI SESSION OF CONGRESS (1931) — FULL MIND MAP

Topic-wise · Fully Explained · Hinglish · SSC / BPSC / BSSC / Railway

Topics in this chapter:

1. The Karachi Session (1931) — Presidency, Resolutions & Significance
2. Chronology Around the Karachi Session
3. Broader Chronology of Modern Indian History

1. The Karachi Session (1931) — Presidency, Resolutions & Significance

- Karachi Session (29-31 March 1931 AD) Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel ki leadership mein hui — main agenda tha Gandhi-Irwin Pact ko approve karna. Congress ne pehli baar 'Fundamental Rights' aur 'National Economic Programme' se related resolutions pass ki. Gandhiji ne kaha tha: 'Gandhi mar sakta hai, lekin Gandhism nahi.' [Q1]
- Fundamental Rights aur National Economic Programmes ki resolution Jawaharlal Nehru ne draft ki thi — M.N. Roy ne unki madad ki. [Q2]
- Fundamental Rights se related resolutions pehli baar Karachi Session (1931) mein pass hui. [Q3]
- Subhash Chandra Bose ne Karachi Session (1931) ko Mahatma Gandhi ki popularity aur prestige ka 'pinnacle' (chotti) mana tha. [Q4]

2. Chronology Around the Karachi Session

- Events ka sahi chronological order: Gandhi-Irwin Pact (5 March 1931) → Bhagat Singh ki execution (23 March 1931) → Karachi Session (29-31 March 1931) → Second Round Table Conference (7 September 1931). [Q5]
- Events ka sahi chronological order: Gandhi-Irwin Pact (5 March 1931) → Rajguru ki execution (23 March 1931) → Karachi Session (29 March 1931). [Q6]
- India ki freedom struggle se juday events ka correct sequence establish karna important hai — Gandhi-Irwin Pact, Bhagat Singh-Rajguru-Sukhdev ki execution, aur Karachi Session — sab March 1931 mein, bahut close saath hue events the. [Q7]

3. Broader Chronology of Modern Indian History

- Modern Indian history ka sahi chronological order: Morley-Minto Reforms (Indian Council Act, 1909) → Jallianwala Bagh Massacre (13 April 1919) → Gandhi-Irwin Pact (5 March 1931) → August Offer (1940). [Q8]