

EAST INDIA COMPANY RULE — FULL MIND MAP

Topic-wise · Fully Explained · Hinglish · SSC / BPSC / BSSC / Railway

Topics in this chapter:

1. Regulating Act, 1773 — Supreme Court at Calcutta
2. Major Company Acts — Important Match-the-Following
3. Charter Act, 1813 — English Education
4. Charter Act, 1813 — Trade Monopoly & Crown Sovereignty
5. Charter Act, 1833 — Indians in Administration

1. Regulating Act, 1773 — Supreme Court at Calcutta

- Regulating Act, 1773 mein Fort William, Calcutta mein Supreme Court establish karne ka provision kiya gaya tha. Court 1774 mein establish hua. [Q1]
- Is Supreme Court ke first Chief Justice Sir Elijah Impey the — Lemaister nahi. Isliye statement “Lemaister was the first Chief Justice” galat hai. [Q1, Q2]

2. Major Company Acts — Important Match-the-Following

- Board of Control ki establishment → Pitt's India Act, 1784. [Q3]
- Supreme Court ki establishment → Regulating Act, 1773. [Q3]
- English Missionaries ko India mein work karne ki permission → Charter Act, 1813. [Q3]
- Governor-General's Council mein Law Member ki appointment → Charter Act, 1833. [Q3]

3. Charter Act, 1813 — English Education

- East India Company ne orientalist education system ko discourage kiya aur western education ko promote kiya. Charter Act, 1813 mein Company ko Indian education par har saal Rs 1 lakh spend karne ka provision diya gaya. [Q4]
- 1823 mein General Committee of Public Instruction constitute hui; is committee ko Rs 1 lakh education grant dene ki responsibility mili. [Q4]
- Orientalist–Anglicist Controversy education ke nature aur medium ko lekar thi. H.T. Prinsep aur Dr. H.H. Wilson orientalist education ke supporter the; Anglicists ko Charles Trevelyan lead karte the aur English medium se western education advocate karte the. [Q4]
- Lord William Bentinck ke rule mein 7 March 1835 ko Lord Macaulay ka proposal accept hua aur English ko higher education ka medium accept kiya gaya. [Q4]

4. Charter Act, 1813 — Trade Monopoly & Crown Sovereignty

- Charter Act, 1813 ne East India Company ka India ke saath trade monopoly abolish kar diya — lekin Tea trade aur China ke saath trade par monopoly continue rahi. [Q5, Q6, Q7]
- Isi Act ne Company-held Indian territories par British Crown ki sovereignty assert ki. Local governments ko taxes impose karne aur tax na dene walon ko punish karne ka power bhi diya gaya. [Q5, Q7]
- Statement “India ka revenue ab British Parliament control karti thi” 1813 ke context mein galat hai: territory aur revenue ke rights agle 20 saal Company ke under hi rahe. [Q7]

- Indian revenue British Parliament ke direct control mein Act of 1858 ke through aaya; isi system mein Secretary of State aur uski help ke liye Council of India ka arrangement tha. [Q7]

⚠ EXAM TRAP — Charter Act 1813 vs 1833: Monopoly ka exact difference

- ▶ 1813 → India ke saath Company ka trade monopoly end hua, BUT Tea aur China trade exception rahe. [Q5, Q6, Q7]
- ▶ 1833 → East India Company ki commercial role entirely abolish ho gayi; future mein Company ko political functions hi perform karne the. [Q5]
- ▶ RULE: “Monopoly completely abolished” type wording aaye to 1833 ko 1813 se confuse mat karna.

5. Charter Act, 1833 — Indians in Administration

- Charter Act, 1833 ne pehli baar Indians ke liye apne country ke administration mein kuch share lena possible banaya. Is Act ki Section 87 bahut important thi. [Q8]
- Section 87 ke mutabik India ya Crown ka koi person religion, place of birth, descent ya colour ke ground par Company ke kisi post/service se debar nahi kiya ja sakta tha. [Q8]
- Baad mein Section 87 political movement ke dauran administration mein Indians ki participation ki demand ka foundation bani. [Q8]