1. Indian Councils Act, 1861 — Portfolio System & Legislative Council

- Indian Councils Act, 1861 ne Viceroy ki Executive Council ko portfolio system par chalne wale miniature cabinet mein badla. Five members ko Revenue, Finance, Law, Home aur Military departments mile; 1874 mein Public Works ke liye sixth member add hua. Isliye 'total members became 7' wala statement source explanation ke mutabik incorrect hai. [Q1]
- Legislative work ke liye additional members minimum 6 aur maximum 12 ho sakte the; Viceroy unhe 2 years ke liye nominate karta tha aur kam-se-kam half members non-official hone the. [Q1]
- Is Act mein Central aur Provincial subjects ke beech differentiation nahi ki gayi thi. [Q1]

2. Indian Councils Act, 1892 — Budget Discussion & Questions

- Indian Councils Act, 1892 ko British Parliament ne pass kiya aur 20 June 1892 ko royal assent mila, lekin source explanation ke mutabik Act 3 February 1893 se commence hua. [Q2]
- Governor-General's Council ke additional members ko minimum 10 aur maximum 16 tak badhaya gaya; at least half non-official hone the (source explanation 10 out of 16 non-official mention karta hai). [Q2]
- Legislative Council ko Budget discuss karne ka right mila, lekin Budget par vote karne ka power nahi. Executive se question poochne ke liye 6 days ka prior notice chahiye tha; supplementary questions allowed nahi the. [Q2, Q3]

⚠ EXAM TRAP — Indian Councils Act 1892 — Q2 source mein disputed hai

- ▶ Q2 ke statement (i) mein 20 June 1892 ko implementation bola gaya hai; source explanation ise royal assent ki date batata hai aur commencement 3 February 1893 deta hai.
- ▶ Statement (iii) supplementary questions ka right bolta hai, lekin source ke hisab se supplementary questions allowed nahi the.
- ▶ Source ne teenon statements ko incorrect maana aur likha ki given options mein koi match nahi karta. [Q2]

3. Indian Councils Act, 1909 — Separate Electorate

- Indian Councils Act, 1909 — Morley-Minto Reforms — ne Muslim community ke liye separate electorate introduce karke communal representation ka system diya. [Q4, Q5]
- Source explanation 1909 Act ko communalism ko legalize karne/separatism ke seeds se jodta hai. Government of India Act, 1919 ne Muslims ke liye separate electorate introduce nahi kiya; usne is principle ko Sikhs, Europeans, Indian-Christians aur Anglo-Indians tak extend kiya. [Q4, Q5, Q10]

4. Government of India Act, 1919 — Provincial Dyarchy

- Government of India Act, 1919 (Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms) ne Provinces mein Dyarchy — yaani dual government — introduce ki. Provincial subjects ko Reserved aur Transferred categories mein divide kiya gaya. [Q10, Q11, Q13]
- Reserved subjects Governor aur uski Executive Council handle karti thi. Source examples: Police, Justice/Judicial Administration, Finance, Land Revenue, Prisons aur Forests. [Q11, Q12]
- Transferred subjects Indian ministers ki aid se administer hote the. Source examples: Education, Agriculture, Health & Sanitation, Local Self-Government aur Public Works. [Q11, Q12]
- 1919 Act ne legislative authority ka devolution karke Centre aur Provinces ke powers ko distribute kiya. [Q10]

! EXAM TRAP — Dyarchy — 1919 vs 1935

- ▶ 1919 → Dyarchy Provinces mein introduce hui: Reserved + Transferred subjects. [Q10, Q11, Q12, Q13]
- ▶ 1935 → Provincial Dyarchy abolish hui aur Dyarchy Centre par introduce ki gayi. [Q8, Q9, Q26]
- ▶ Exam wording mein 'provincial level' aur 'central level' ko sabse pehle identify karo.

5. Government of India Act, 1919 — Bicameral Legislature at Centre

- Government of India Act, 1919 ne Indian Legislature ko pehli baar bicameral banaya. [Q14, Q15]
- Upper House ka naam Council of State aur Lower House ka naam Central Legislative Assembly tha. [Q14]

6. Government of India Act, 1919 — Women, ICS, Princes & Elections

- Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms, 1919 ne 21+ age ki sabhi women ko universal voting right nahi diya. Source ke mutabik Provincial Councils decide kar sakti thi ki property ya educational qualifications meet karne wali women vote kar sakein ya nahi. [Q16]
- Government of India Act, 1935 ne communal representation ke principle ko extend karte hue women, depressed classes aur labourers ke liye separate electorates/reserved seats ka provision diya — source Q16 isi contrast ko use karta hai. [Q16]
- Government of India Act, 1919 ne Indian Civil Service ke liye India mein separate examination ka provision diya. Source ke mutabik exam 1922 mein start hua — pehle Allahabad aur baad mein Delhi. 1941 tak ICS mein Indians ka proportion Europeans se zyada ho gaya tha. [Q17]
- 1919 Act se 120-member 'Chamber of Princes' / Narendra Mandal ka system linked hai. Source ke mutabik King-Emperor George V ki Proclamation se 1921 mein establish hua; princely rulers ke liye advisory forum tha aur Viceroy preside karta tha. [Q18]
- Central Legislative Assembly ke 1926 aur 1945 elections Government of India Act, 1919 ke provisions ke under hue. 1937 elections Provincial elections the aur Government of India Act, 1935 ke under hue. [Q19]
- Government of India Act, 1919 ke under Indian Legislature ka last election 1945 mein hua. [Q20]

7. Government of India Act, 1935 — Federal Court

- Federal Court ka provision Government of India Act, 1935 ke under tha; Court 1 October 1937 ko establish hua. [Q6, Q7]
- Source explanation ke mutabik Federal Court ke first Chief Justice Sir Maurice Gwyer the. [Q6]

8. Government of India Act, 1935 — Central Dyarchy & Constitutional Autocracy

- Government of India Act, 1935 ne Provincial Dyarchy abolish karke Central level par Dyarchy introduce ki; Central subjects ko Reserved aur Transferred categories mein divide kiya gaya. [Q8, Q9, Q26]
- 'Principle of Constitutional Autocracy' source ke mutabik Government of India Act, 1935 se introduce hua: Provinces ki executive authority Governors aur Centre ki executive authority Governor-General mein Crown ke behalf par vest ki gayi. [Q22]
- Viceroy ko ordinance promulgate karne ka power Indian Councils Act, 1861 mein bhi tha, lekin source explanation modern President ke ordinance power (Article 123) ko directly Government of India Act, 1935 ke Section 42 se inspired batata hai. [Q21]

9. Government of India Act, 1935 — Federation & Distribution of Powers

- Government of India Act, 1935 ne legislative powers ko Federal, Provincial aur Concurrent lists mein structure kiya; source ise modern Constitution mein Centre-State power distribution ka basis batata hai. [Q23]
- Act ne British Indian Provinces aur Princely States ko units banakar All India Federation establish karne ka provision diya. Source ek question mein proposed structure ki official terminology 'Federation of India' batata hai. [Q27, Q28, Q30, Q31]
- 1935 Federation mein residuary powers Governor-General / Viceroy ke paas vested thi — Central ya Provincial Legislature ko allocate nahi ki gayi thi. [Q24, Q29]
- Central Dyarchy ke framework mein Defence, Ecclesiastical Affairs aur External Affairs Reserved Subjects the; source ke mutabik ye Governor-General ke discretion mein the, Federal Legislature ke direct control mein nahi. [Q30]

10. Government of India Act, 1935 — Provincial Autonomy & Constitutional Legacy

- Government of India Act, 1935 ne British India mein Provincial Autonomy establish/extend ki aur Provinces mein Dyarchy entirely abolish ki. [Q25]
- Source Q32 ke mutabik Federation of India ka proposal, Provincial Autonomy aur Governor-General's Executive Council ka reconstruction 1935 Act ki features mein the; 'Appraisal of the Act of 1935' khud koi feature/provision nahi tha. [Q32]
- Source Q33 ke mutabik country ke liye written Constitution ka provision Government of India Act, 1935 mein mention nahi tha; Constitution ki demand ko British Government ne later August Offer, 1940 mein principle mein accept kiya. [Q33]
- Government of India Act, 1935 ko source Indian Constitution ka important/main source batata hai. Federal structure, Centre-State power distribution aur Federal Court jaise provisions is legacy se linked bataye gaye hain. [Q34]

11. Bihar Bicameral Legislature — Disputed Question

- Government of India Act, 1935 ne six provinces — Bihar, Bengal, United Province, Bombay, Madras aur Assam — mein bicameral legislature provide kiya. Bihar mein Bihar Legislative Assembly + Bihar Legislative Council ka bicameral setup isi context mein source explain karta hai. [Q35]

⚠ EXAM TRAP — Bihar Bicameral Legislature — Q35 source mein answer-key conflict

- ▶ Source explanation ke hisab se historically Government of India Act, 1935 (option C) answer hona chahiye.
- ▶ Lekin source saath hi record karta hai ki BPSC official answer key ne option (A) ko correct mark kiya tha.
- ▶ Isliye Q35 ko source ne 'Disputed Question' mark kiya hai — dono facts ko yaad rakho. [Q35]

12. Burma Separation from India

- Burma ko India se 1937 mein officially separate kiya gaya; source is separation ko Government of India Act, 1935 ke provisions se link karta hai. [Q36]
