1. Attorney General — Article 76, Position, Appointment & Tenure

- Article 76 Attorney General of India ka constitutional office provide karta hai. Source ke mutabik AG Government of India ka chief legal adviser aur country ka first/highest law officer hai. [Q1, Q5, Q6, Q7, Q8]
- AG ko President appoint karta hai aur woh President ke pleasure tak office hold karta hai; fixed security of tenure/removal-by-impeachment rule source mein nahi diya gaya. [Q2, Q3, Q4, Q11, Q12]
- Qualification: person Supreme Court Judge appoint hone ke qualified hona chahiye; source explanation citizen + HC judge/advocate experience ya President ki opinion mein eminent jurist wali SC-judge eligibility ko refer karta hai. [Q11, Q12, Q13]
- AG ki remuneration Parliament nahi, President determine karta hai; source Article 76(4) ko is point ke liye use karta hai. [Q14]

2. Attorney General — Courts & Parliamentary Rights (Article 88)

- Duty perform karte waqt Attorney General ko India ke territory ke sabhi courts mein right of audience hai. Government ka top law officer court mein Government ko represent karta hai. [Q9, Q10]
- Article 88 ke under AG either House, joint sitting aur named Parliamentary Committee ki proceedings mein speak/take part kar sakta hai; member hona zaroori nahi. [Q13, Q17, Q18, Q19, Q20, Q21, Q23]
- AG Parliament mein vote nahi kar sakta. Source repeatedly “participate/speak but no vote” distinction ko test karta hai. [Q17, Q21]

3. Solicitor General & Advocate General — Union vs State Law Officers

- Solicitor General Government ka legal adviser hai; source ise Attorney General ke subordinate, country ka second law officer aur Additional Solicitors General se assisted officer batata hai. [Q25, Q26]
- State Government ka legal adviser Advocate General hai. Article 165 ke under Governor qualified High Court Judge-level person ko appoint karta hai; office Governor ke pleasure tak hota hai. [Q27, Q28, Q29, Q30]
- Source Q31 ke mutabik Advocate General ko President nahi Governor appoint karta hai; Article 177 State Legislature mein speak/take part ka right deta hai, vote ka nahi. [Q31]

4. CAG — Constitutional Office, Appointment & Reports

- Article 148 CAG ka independent constitutional office establish karta hai. Appointment President apne hand and seal ke warrant se karta hai. [Q32, Q33, Q36]

- Union accounts se related CAG report President ko submit hoti hai; source explanation State accounts ki report Governor ko submit hone ka point bhi deta hai. [Q32, Q34, Q35]
- Q35 mein President option mein nahi tha, isliye source key “None of the above” rakhti hai — substantive answer President hi hai. [Q35]

5. CAG — Tenure, Removal, Salary & Independence

- Salary/service conditions Second Schedule (Part E) se linked hain; source CAG Act, 1971 ke under salary Supreme Court Judge ke salary ke equal batata hai. [Q37]
- Tenure: 6 years ya 65 years age, jo pehle ho; source is statutory rule ko Article 148(3) ke service-condition framework ke saath explain karta hai. [Q38, Q39]
- Removal “like manner and on like grounds as a Supreme Court Judge” hota hai; simple President-pleasure removal nahi. CAG office chhodne ke baad Union/State Government ke kisi further office ke liye eligible nahi. [Q40, Q41, Q51]
- CAG office ke administrative expenses Consolidated Fund of India par charged hote hain, Parliament vote ke subject nahi; leave grant/refuse karne ki power President ke paas hai. [Q51, Q53]

6. CAG — Duties, Audit Scope & Financial Accountability

- CAG audit ka objective sirf expenditure ki legality nahi, propriety/economy/efficiency/effectiveness bhi check karna hai; source financial, compliance aur performance audit dimensions explain karta hai. [Q42]
- CAG public money ke receipt/issue ko pre-control nahi karta; expenditure/receipts ko audit karta hai. Source “exchequer control” aur prosecution/judicial powers ko CAG ke functions mein include nahi karta. [Q43, Q45]
- CAG Consolidated Fund mein payable receipts aur Union/State offices ke stores/stock accounts audit/report kar sakta hai. [Q44]
- CAG reports ke facts investigating agencies use kar sakti hain; projects/programmes reports PAC mein discuss hoti hain. Final parliamentary accountability ke context mein due action ki ultimate responsibility Parliament par batayi gayi hai. [Q45, Q46]
- CAG Public Accounts Committee meetings attend karta hai; Article 149 duties and powers prescribe karta hai. [Q47, Q48]

7. CAG Articles 148–151 — Quick Constitutional Map

- Article 148 → Appointment/office of CAG; Article 149 → Duties & Powers; Article 150 → Form of Accounts of Union and States; Article 151 → Audit Reports. [Q49]

8. Public Accounts Committee & Guardian of Public Purse

- CAG ko Public Accounts Committee ka “Friend, Philosopher and Guide” bataya gaya hai; PAC CAG audit reports examine karte waqt CAG ki assistance leti hai. [Q46, Q47, Q52]
- CAG “Guardian of Public Purse / Public Finance” hai — public money ka custodian/trustee; source ka emphasis hai ki Consolidated Fund ka paisa legislative authorization ke bina spend nahi hona chahiye. [Q57, Q58]

9. Accounts vs Audit — 1976 Separation

- CAG (Duties, Powers and Conditions of Service) Act, 1971 mein 1976 amendment se Central Government accounts preparation ko audit se separate kiya gaya; source 1 March 1976 effective date batata hai. [Q54, Q55]
- Source explanation ke mutabik State level par accounting aur auditing dono functions CAG framework se associated rahe; Q56 ka substantive answer CAG hai, jo options mein nahi tha. [Q54, Q56]

10. Important Persons, Matching & Public Finance

- Source Q59: Girish Chandra Murmu Independent India ke 14th CAG the; explanation K. Sanjay Murthy ko 15th CAG, 2024 appointed, batata hai. [Q59]
- Match-the-following source pair: Vice-President → Rajya Sabha; CAG → Public Accounts Committee; Solicitor General → Supreme Court; Attorney General → Meetings of Lok Sabha. [Q60]
- Public Finance Government ki financial activities ka study hai — public expenditure, public revenue aur financial administration included hain; commercial bank functioning isme include nahi. [Q61]

11. Exam Traps — Source Ambiguities / Disputed Questions

⚠ EXAM TRAP — AG Privileges — Q15 Official Key Conflict

Q15 ka official key 'Only 2' deta hai, lekin source explanation khud note karta hai ki constitutionally AG Article 105(4) ke under MP-type privileges enjoy karta hai. Isliye is item ko source-conflict ke roop mein yaad rakho, silently correct mat karo. [Q15]

⚠ EXAM TRAP — Solicitor General & Resignation Convention

Q16: Solicitor General ko Article 88 wala constitutional parliamentary participation right nahi; aur Constitution AG ko appointing Government resign karte hi resign karne ke liye compel nahi karta — source ise convention batata hai. [Q16]

⚠ EXAM TRAP — Non-member Participation — VP vs AG

Q22 mein Vice-President aur Attorney General dono interpretations aa sakte hain; official key 'More than one' hai. Q24 explicitly multiple-correct batata hai: VP aur AG dono non-members ke roop mein participate kar sakte hain, par AG either House mein Article 88 ke under participate karta hai. [Q22, Q24]

⚠ EXAM TRAP — CAG Removal — Disputed Options

Q50 source ke hisab se CAG removal President ke order se hota hai, lekin Supreme Court Judge jaisa parliamentary address/manner follow hota hai. Isliye sirf 'President' ya sirf 'Parliament' option apne aap complete answer nahi tha. [Q50]
