1. Parliament Composition, President & Article 79

- Article 79 ke source ke mutabik Indian Parliament ke 3 integral parts hain — President + Rajya Sabha (Council of States) + Lok Sabha (House of the People). President kisi House ka member nahi aur Parliament mein sit/vote nahi karta, phir bhi Parliament ka integral part hai; Vice-President integral part nahi. [Q4, Q5, Q6, Q7, Q8, Q9, Q10, Q11, Q12, Q13, Q14]
- Old constitutional composition table mein Lok Sabha ke liye not more than 530 State representatives + not more than 20 UT representatives + Anglo-Indian nomination provision diya gaya tha. Source note karta hai ki 104th Amendment Act, 2019 ke baad Anglo-Indian nomination 25 Jan 2020 se extend nahi hua; question ka X = up to 20 UT representatives. [Q1]
- Article 87 special address: Lok Sabha ke har general election ke baad first session ke commencement par aur har year ke first session ke commencement par President dono Houses ko assembled together address karta hai aur summons ke causes batata hai. [Q2, Q3]

2. Sessions, Officers, Absence & Vacation of Seats

- Article 85(1): Parliament ko year mein kam-se-kam twice meet karna chahiye; ek session ki last sitting aur next session ki first sitting ke beech 6 months se zyada interval nahi. [Q15, Q16]
- Source Parliament officers list: Lok Sabha Speaker, Deputy Speaker, Secretary-General aur Rajya Sabha Chairman. [Q17]
- Article 101(4): Member without House permission 60 days tak all meetings se absent rahe to House seat vacant declare kar sakta hai; prorogation ya more than 4 consecutive days adjournment ka period 60-day calculation se exclude hota hai. [Q18, Q19, Q20]
- Source historical fact: 2000 mein Punjab se Council of States ke Independent MP Barjinder Singh Hamdard ko 60-day absence rule par first such disqualification/seat-vacancy case bataya gaya hai. [Q21]
- Article 101(2) / simultaneous membership rule source: Parliament + State Legislature dono ka member ek saath nahi; State Legislature seat 14 days mein resign na karne par Parliament seat vacant ho sakti hai. [Q22]

3. Privileges, Office of Profit & Membership Traps

- Privilege Motion Minister ke against tab uth sakta hai jab woh facts withhold kare ya distorted version de. Article 105 Houses, members aur committees ke powers/privileges/immunities se related hai; courts Parliament proceedings ki inquiry Article 122 ke under nahi karte. [Q23, Q27, Q29]
- Collective privileges mein debates/proceedings publication prohibit karna, strangers exclude karna, own procedure regulate karna, breach/contempt punish karna etc. Source freedom from attendance as witness ko individual privilege batata hai, collective nahi. [Q28]
- Article 102(1)(a) MP ke office of profit restriction se related hai. "Office of profit" Constitution/RPA 1951 mein well-defined nahi; Parliament (Prevention of Disqualification) Act, 1959 certain offices exempt karta hai aur source ke mutabik Act five times amend hua. [Q24, Q25]
- Office-of-profit question source mein two analyses deta hai: exempt offices decide karne ka legislative angle (Parliament/State Legislature) aur individual disqualification decision ka angle (President/Governor acting on Election Commission advice). [Q26]
- Elected State Legislative Assembly member Lok Sabha election mein citizen ke roop mein aur Rajya Sabha election mein MLA ke roop mein vote kar sakta hai; source President election vote bhi note karta hai. [Q30]
- Rajya Sabha candidature ka old domicile/voter requirement 2003 amendment ke baad remove hua; source Q31 ko date-sensitive/disputed maanta hai. Nominated members President election mein vote nahi karte, lekin Minister banne par constitutional bar nahi; 6 months membership rule applicable hai. [Q31, Q32]

4. Parliamentary Legislative Power — State List, Residual & Language

- Source ke mutabik Parliament Union of India, Territory of India aur Indian subjects/residents aur unki property situated anywhere in the world ke liye legislate kar sakta hai. [Q33]
- State List par Parliament special situations mein law bana sakta hai: Article 249 national interest Rajya Sabha 2/3 present-and-voting resolution; Article 252 two or more States consent; Article 253 international agreements; emergency context source Q35 Article 357 aur Q37 Article 250 ko cite karta hai. [Q34, Q35, Q36, Q37, Q38]
- Article 248 Parliament ko residuary matters par exclusive legislative power deta hai. [Q39]
- Article 120: Parliament business Hindi/English mein; Chairman/Speaker member ko mother tongue mein address karne ki permission de sakta hai agar woh Hindi/English mein adequately express na kar sake. [Q40]
- Speaker ek member ko stop karke another member ko bolne de — source is procedure ko "yielding the floor" batata hai; related decorum rules mein crossing the floor aur Speaker ke rise par member ka seat resume karna note hai. [Q41]

5. Zero Hour — Indian Innovation

- Zero Hour source ke mutabik Indian parliamentary innovation hai, early 1960s mein urgent public-importance matters raise karne se develop hua. Lok Sabha mein usually Question Hour ke immediately baad 12–1; Rajya Sabha source note mein 11–12 before Question Hour. [Q42, Q43, Q44]
- Lok Sabha Zero Hour ka maximum source one hour batata hai; members urgent matters raise karte hain jo delay nahi ho sakte, informal question-answer/public-importance device jaisa function karta hai. [Q45, Q46]

6. Bills, Readings & Joint Sitting — Articles 107–108

- Bill passage source: First stage = introduction/leave; Second reading = general discussion + clause-by-clause consideration; Third reading = final debate/passage. General discussion second stage/reading mein hoti hai. [Q47]
- Article 108 joint sitting deadlock resolve karne ke liye; Bill simple majority of total members of both Houses present and voting se pass deemed hota hai. [Q48, Q57]

- President joint sitting summon karne ki intention notify kar chuka ho aur uske baad Lok Sabha dissolve ho, source Article 108(5) ke basis par joint sitting still hold ho sakti hai; notification se pehle Bill lapse ho gaya to nahi. [Q49]
- Joint sitting presiding order source: Lok Sabha Speaker → Deputy Speaker → Rajya Sabha Deputy Chairman → members present dwara determined person. Article 108 provision aur Article 118(4) procedure reference diya gaya hai. [Q50, Q51, Q52, Q53, Q54, Q55]
- Source joint-sitting history: 1961 Dowry Prohibition Bill; 1978 Banking Service Commission (Repeal) Bill; March 2002 POTA/Anti-Terrorism Bill. [Q56, Q59]
- Joint sitting President/Vice-President election ya Constitutional Amendment Bill ke liye nahi; ordinary Bill deadlock ke liye. Money Bill aur Constitutional Amendment Bill joint sitting route se resolve nahi hote. [Q58, Q61, Q62, Q63]
- Source Q60: joint sitting ordinary Bills ke liye; presiding hierarchy Deputy Chairman tak ja sakti hai; quorum total members of both Houses ka 1/10, not 1/6. [Q60]

7. Bill Lapse Rules after Lok Sabha Dissolution

- Ordinary/legislative Bill either House mein introduce ho sakta hai; Money Bill only Lok Sabha. Source additionally All-India Services creation-related initiative Rajya Sabha special power ke context mein note karta hai. [Q64]
- Article 107(5): Lok Sabha mein pending Bill, ya Lok Sabha pass karke Rajya Sabha mein pending Bill, Lok Sabha dissolution par lapse hota hai; Article 107(4): Rajya Sabha mein pending but Lok Sabha se unpassed Bill lapse nahi hota. [Q65]
- Article 107(3): prorogation se pending Bill lapse nahi hota. President joint sitting intention notify kar chuka ho to dissolution ke baad bhi Article 108(5) protection source note karta hai. [Q65, Q66]

8. Public Finance — Consolidated Fund, Contingency Fund & Grants

- Article 265: authority of law ke bina tax levy/collect nahi ho sakta. Article 266 Consolidated Fund/Public Account framework se linked hai. [Q67]
- Consolidated Fund of India mein Union revenues, loans etc. credit hote hain; withdrawal ke liye Parliament authorization/Appropriation under Article 114 required hai. [Q68, Q69, Q70]
- Charged expenditure source list: President office, Rajya Sabha Chairman/Deputy Chairman, Lok Sabha Speaker/Deputy Speaker, debt charges, Supreme Court judges, certain judge pensions, CAG, court/arbitral awards etc. PM salary charged expenditure nahi; VP salary VP ke roop mein nahi, Chairman RS ke roop mein receive hoti hai. [Q71, Q72, Q73]
- Article 267 Contingency Fund; Parliament law se establish karta hai, President disposal mein hota hai aur unforeseen expenditure ke liye advance diya ja sakta hai pending later parliamentary authorization. [Q74, Q75]
- Union Budget preparation source Department of Economic Affairs (Ministry of Finance) ko deta hai, Department of Revenue ko nahi. Consolidated Fund withdrawal needs Parliament authorization; Public Account disbursement ko source parliamentary authorization-free executive control batata hai. [Q76, Q77]
- Article 113 ke under Demands for Grants generally ministry/department-wise Lok Sabha ke samne; President recommendation required. Source Q78 Budget 2025-26 = 102 grants aur 2021-22 = 101 note karta hai. [Q78]

9. Money Bill vs Finance Bill — Articles 109–110–117

- Article 110 Money Bill definition; Article 109 special procedure; Article 111 assent. Money Bill matters: taxes, Union borrowing/guarantee, Consolidated/Contingency Fund custody & withdrawal, appropriation, charged expenditure, CFI/Public Account receipts/custody/issue and audit-linked matters. [Q79, Q80, Q81, Q82]
- Article 110(2) source trap: fines/pecuniary penalties merely impose karna Money Bill subject nahi. [Q83]

- Source distinction: every Money Bill is a Finance Bill, but every Finance Bill is not a Money Bill. Financial Bill (I) Article 117(1) only Lok Sabha + President recommendation, but otherwise ordinary-Bill procedure; Rajya Sabha amend/reject kar sakti hai. Financial Bill (II) Article 117(3) expenditure from CFI and either House mein introduce ho sakta hai, consideration ke liye President recommendation needed. [Q84, Q86, Q104]
- Money Bill only Lok Sabha mein introduce hota hai; Lok Sabha Speaker Article 110(3) ke under Money Bill status decide/certify karta hai. Source Speaker decision final batata hai. [Q85, Q87, Q88, Q89, Q90, Q91, Q94, Q97, Q98]
- Article 109: Rajya Sabha Money Bill reject/amend nahi kar sakti; recommendations ke saath/without recommendations 14 days mein return karti hai; Lok Sabha recommendations accept/reject kar sakti hai. 14 days action na ho to passed deemed hota hai. [Q92, Q93, Q95, Q96, Q99, Q100, Q101, Q102, Q103]

10. Union Budget / Annual Financial Statement & Parliamentary Control

- Article 112 Union Budget ka constitutional term “Annual Financial Statement” hai; “Budget” word Constitution mein source ke mutabik appear nahi karta. AFS estimated receipts & expenditure statement hai. [Q105, Q106, Q107]
- Charged expenditure CFI par vote ke liye submit nahi hota, though discussion ho sakti hai. Parliamentary financial control mein AFS laying, Appropriation authorization, supplementary grants/vote-on-account aur Finance Bill mechanisms include; source “Parliamentary Budget Office mid-year review” ko constitutional mechanism nahi maanta. [Q108, Q109]
- Source convention: annual Union Budget Lok Sabha se pass na ho to government majority/confidence lose maana jaata hai aur PM/Council of Ministers resignation submit karte hain. [Q110]

11. Private Member Bill, Economic Survey & Vote-on-Account

- Private Member Bill = any MP other than a Minister dwara introduced Bill; nominated-member definition nahi. Source ke mutabik independence ke baad around a dozen private members’ Bills pass hue, “recently first time” statement wrong. [Q111]
- Economic Survey every year coming Budget se pehle Parliament mein presented hota hai; current-year economy sectors ki progress/activities/fiscal details source note karta hai. [Q112]
- Article 116 Vote-on-Account: full Appropriation/Budget pass hone se pehle limited period ke expenditure ke liye CFI withdrawal authorization; full Budget ke liye time na ho/elections near ho to administration continue karne ka temporary provision. [Q113, Q114, Q115]
- Vote-on-Account only expenditure side deal karta hai; Interim Budget source ke mutabik receipts + expenditure estimates include karta hai. “Stable vs caretaker government” ko source fixed constitutional distinction nahi maanta. [Q116]

12. Financial Legislation, Demands for Grants & Cut Motions

- Article 113(2): expenditure estimates Lok Sabha mein Demands for Grants ke form mein voted hote hain; Lok Sabha grant pass/reject/reduce kar sakti hai. [Q117]
- Normal financial legislation stages source: Budget presentation, discussion, Appropriation Bill, Finance Bill. Vote-on-Account / Vote of Credit / Exceptional Grants special Article 116 devices hain, normal stages nahi. [Q118]
- Source says prior President sanction/recommendation required before Bills on new State formation/boundary alteration, taxation in which States interested and Money Bill-type matters; Articles 3, 274, 117/109 references diye gaye hain. [Q119]
- Cut Motion Lok Sabha mein Demands for Grants reduce karne ka proposal hai; types source: Disapproval of Policy Cut, Economy Cut, Token Cut. Object government budget demand ko challenge/reduce karke specified matter par House attention draw karna. [Q120, Q121, Q122]
- Source mismatch question: Vote-on-Account entire financial-year budgetary demands ke liye nahi; Article 116 Vote-on-Account, Vote of Credit aur Exceptional Grants se related hai. [Q123]

13. Questions, Motions, Rules & Guillotine

- Calling Attention Indian innovation; urgent public-importance matter par Minister ka attention draw karne ka device, Adjournment Motion jaisa but condemnation element nahi. Source ke mutabik isne Adjournment Motion ka scope restrict kiya. [Q124]
- Council of Ministers par parliamentary control source: Adjournment Motion + Question Hour + Supplementary Questions. Question Hour generally sitting ka first hour; starred = oral answer + supplementaries, unstarred = written/no supplementaries, short-notice = urgent matter shorter notice. [Q125]
- Starred Question asterisk-marked, oral answer; supplementary questions allowed. Source daily oral list maximum 20 questions note karta hai. [Q126]
- Adjournment Motion ka main purpose urgent public importance matter discuss karna. [Q127]
- Lok Sabha Rule 184 source: discussion ke saath voting hoti hai; assertion-reason question isi point ko use karta hai. [Q128]
- Rule 377 source note: other rules/devices ke under raise na ho paane wale matters; 2015 mein daily matters limit 20 se 30 ki gayi — question options ke context mein disputed. [Q129]
- Guillotine closure motion ka form hai: allotted discussion time khatam hone par undiscussed clauses/demands ko discussed items ke saath vote ke liye put kar diya jaata hai. [Q130]

14. Ordinance, Parliamentary Secretariat & Limits on Sovereignty

- Article 123: jab both Houses simultaneously in session na hon aur immediate action necessary ho, President ordinance promulgate kar sakta hai — source Q131 ka core rule. [Q131]
- Source combined statements: Right to Property 44th Amendment ke baad legal right Article 300A; non-Money Financial Bill Rajya Sabha ordinary Bill ki tarah stop/amend kar sakti hai; 42nd Amendment ne Socialist, Secular, Integrity add kiya, Democratic pehle se tha; parliamentary deadlock Speaker alone nahi, joint sitting mechanism se resolve hota hai. [Q132]
- Article 98: each House ka separate secretarial staff; common posts create ho sakte hain; Parliament law se recruitment/service conditions regulate kar sakta hai. Separate secretariat idea source Vithalbhai J. Patel (1926) se trace karta hai. [Q133, Q134]
- Indian Parliament supreme legislative body hote hue unlimited sovereign nahi; source Basic Structure aur Supreme Court judicial review ko restriction batata hai. [Q135]

15. Parliament History, New Building & Indian Parliamentary Group

- Indian Parliament Golden Jubilee 13 May 2002 ko celebrate hua; source formal establishment/constitution date 13 May 1952 note karta hai. [Q136]
- New Parliament building source ke mutabik architect Vimal/Bimal Patel ne design ki; PM Narendra Modi ne 28 May 2023 inaugurate kiya. Previous building architects Sir Edwin Lutyens & Sir Herbert Baker. [Q137]
- Indian Parliamentary Group source: autonomous body formed 1949; MPs + ex-MPs membership eligible; Lok Sabha Speaker ex-officio President, Deputy Speaker LS and Deputy Chairman RS ex-officio Vice-Presidents. [Q138]
- 1925 mein Vithalbhai Patel Central Legislative Assembly ke nationalist leader/first Speaker elected hue; source tenure 24 Aug 1925–28 Apr 1930 deta hai. [Q139]

16. Exam Traps — Disputed / Date-sensitive Source Questions

- ⚠ Office of Profit — Q26 has Two Valid Interpretations: Source explicitly marks multiple correct: legislature decides which offices are exempt, while actual MP/MLA disqualification is decided by President/Governor on EC advice. [Q26]
- ⚠ Rajya Sabha Domicile & Nominated Member — Law Changed: Q31 uses the old pre-2003 State-voter rule; source marks it disputed after the RPA amendment. Q32 is multiple-correct in the source after the 104th Amendment context. [Q31, Q32]
- ⚠ Zero Hour Timing — House-wise Difference: Source disputes Q42/Q43 because Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha timing/order differs: Lok Sabha 12–1 after Question Hour; Rajya Sabha 11–12 before Question Hour. [Q42, Q43]
- ⚠ Demands for Grants — Time-sensitive Number: Q78 is not a static constitutional number; source itself gives Budget 2025-26 = 102 and 2021-22 = 101, hence “none of the options”. [Q78]
- ⚠ Finance Bill vs Money Bill — Terminology Trap: Q84/Q86 distinguish Financial Bills from Money Bills; Q101 says “Finance Bill” but source treats it as a Money Bill because of the options. [Q84, Q86, Q101]
- ⚠ Rule 377 — Source Updated to 30: Q129 is disputed; source explanation says the daily Rule 377 matters limit was increased from 20 to 30 in 2015. [Q129]
- ⚠ Indian Parliamentary Group — Correct Combination Missing: Q138 source says (i) false, (ii) and (iii) correct, but the correct combination is absent from the options. [Q138]
