

SPECIAL PROVISION FOR CERTAIN CLASSES — FULL MIND MAP

Topic-wise · Fully Explained · Hinglish · SSC / BPSC / BSSC / Railway

Topics in this chapter:

1. Part XVI & Reservation in Legislatures
2. Scheduled Castes / Scheduled Tribes Lists — Articles 341 & 342
3. SC–ST Status, Criteria & Population Facts
4. National Commission for SCs & STs — Articles 338 / 338A
5. Anglo-Indian Representation — Articles 331 & 333
6. National Commission for Backward Classes — Article 338B
7. Important Acts / Match-the-Following Trap
8. Exam Traps — Source-Specific / Date-Sensitive Questions

1. Part XVI & Reservation in Legislatures

- Part XVI Constitution ke 'Special Provisions relating to Certain Classes' se deal karta hai. Source explanation Articles 330–342A ko is block mein rakhti hai. [Q1]
- Article 330 = Lok Sabha mein Scheduled Castes aur Scheduled Tribes ke liye reserved seats. Article 332 = State Legislative Assemblies mein SC/ST reservation; seats population proportion ke basis par hoti hain. [Q2, Q3]
- Rajya Sabha aur State Legislative Council mein kisi caste ke liye seat-reservation ka constitutional provision nahi hai. Source J&K Reorganisation ke baad UT Assembly mein SC/ST reservation ka note bhi deta hai. [Q13]

2. Scheduled Castes / Scheduled Tribes Lists — Articles 341 & 342

- Article 341: President public notification se kisi State/UT ke liye Scheduled Castes specify karta hai; State ke case mein Governor se consultation hota hai. List mein inclusion/exclusion Parliament law se karta hai. [Q4, Q6]
- Article 342: President public notification se Scheduled Tribes specify karta hai; Parliament hi law ke through list ko add/remove kar sakta hai. Baad ki Presidential notification se list alter nahi ki ja sakti. [Q5]
- ST list State/UT-specific hoti hai: ek community ek State mein ST ho sakti hai aur doosre mein zaroori nahi. Governor khud ST declare nahi karta. [Q7]
- Source current-affairs example: Bihar ki 2015 'Tanti-Tantwa' SC notification Supreme Court ne July 2024 mein quash ki; reason — State Government Article 341 list ko change nahi kar sakti. [Q8]

3. SC–ST Status, Criteria & Population Facts

- Scheduled Tribe status religion-neutral hai. Source ke mutabik Scheduled Caste Order, 1950 para-3 SC status ko Hindu framework se jodta hai (isme Sikh aur Buddhist included bataye gaye hain); Rangnath Mishra Commission ne para repeal karne ki recommendation di thi. [Q9]
- ST specification ke established criteria: primitive traits ke indications, distinctive culture, geographical isolation, larger community se contact mein shyness aur backwardness. Source kehta hai ye criteria Constitution mein expressly spelt out nahi hain. [Q10]
- Source count-fact: 2007 amendment ke baad 1206 SCs; 2017 Scheduled Castes Amendment Act ke baad total 1261; Census 2011 SC population share 16.6% diya hai. [Q11]
- Source options/context ke hisab se ST population sabse zyada Madhya Pradesh mein; order: Madhya Pradesh → Rajasthan → Andhra Pradesh → Bihar. [Q12]

4. National Commission for SCs & STs — Articles 338 / 338A

- Article 338 = National Commission for Scheduled Castes (NCSC). Original Special Officer setup ke baad 65th Amendment Act, 1990 se multi-member combined commission; 89th Amendment Act, 2003 se SC/ST commissions separate hue. [Q15, Q16, Q17]
- Article 338A = National Commission for Scheduled Tribes (NCST); 89th Constitutional Amendment Act, 2003 se separate ST commission ka provision insert hua. [Q14, Q18]
- NCST composition: Chairperson + Vice-Chairperson + 3 full-time members; source one female member ka note deta hai. NCST set-up date 19 February 2004 di gayi hai. [Q19]
- Constitutional vs statutory: NCST constitutional body hai; NHRC, NIA aur NDMA ko source statutory bodies batata hai. [Q20]

5. Anglo-Indian Representation — Articles 331 & 333

- Article 331 mein Lok Sabha ke liye Anglo-Indian representation ka provision tha: inadequate representation par President do members nominate kar sakta tha; source note karta hai ki ye provision ab cease ho chuka hai. [Q21, Q22]
- Article 333 State Legislative Assemblies mein Anglo-Indian representation se related tha. [Q23]
- 104th Constitutional Amendment Act, 2019 ne Anglo-Indian representation ko further extend nahi kiya, jabki SC/ST seat reservation ko another 10 years extend kiya gaya. [Q21, Q23, Q24]

6. National Commission for Backward Classes — Article 338B

- NCBC = constitutional body under Article 338B; constitutional status 102nd Constitutional Amendment Act, 2018 se mila. [Q26, Q27]
- First All India Backward Classes Commission 29 January 1953 ko appointed hua; source ke mutabik first Chairman Kaka Saheb Kalelkar the. [Q28]
- Article 340 backward classes ki conditions investigate karne ke liye Commission appoint karne ka provision hai; Article 338B specifically NCBC se linked hai. [Q29]

7. Important Acts / Match-the-Following Trap

- Source match facts: NCBC Act = 1993; Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act = 1986; Persons with Disabilities Act = 1995; National Commission for Minorities Act = 1992. Options mein 1992 missing hone se source koi option absolutely correct nahi maanta. [Q25]

8. Exam Traps — Source-Specific / Date-Sensitive Questions

! EXAM TRAPS — Source-Specific / Date-Sensitive

- Q13: SC/ST reservation Lok Sabha & State Assemblies mein; Rajya Sabha / Legislative Council mein caste-reserved seats nahi. [Q13]
- Q11: 1206 (2007), 1261 (2017), Census-2011 = 16.6% ko source/date-specific facts ke roop mein rakho. [Q11]
- Q29: EC=324, NCSC=338, Finance Commission=280, NCBC=338B; technically no pair correct, par source UPPSC key option D note karta hai. [Q29]
- Q25: National Commission for Minorities Act ka source year 1992 hai, jo options mein missing hai; nearest answer B diya gaya. [Q25]