

SOURCES OF CONSTITUTION — FULL MIND MAP

Topic-wise · Fully Explained · Hinglish · SSC / BPSC / BSSC / Railway

Topics in this chapter:

1. Constitution Supreme & Written Constitution Tradition
2. USA — Judicial Review & Federal Court
3. Canada — Federal System, Union of States & Residual Powers
4. Australia — Concurrent List
5. Ireland — DPSP & Rajya Sabha Nomination
6. USA — Fundamental Rights & Related Features
7. Other Borrowed Features — UK, Germany, Japan, Russia
8. Important Match-the-Following — Master Source Map
9. Exam Traps — Election Commission & Longest Constitution

1. Constitution Supreme & Written Constitution Tradition

- Indian political system mein Constitution supreme hai — Constitution of India hi supreme law hai aur Government institutions ki structure, powers, duties, Fundamental Rights, Directive Principles aur citizens ke duties ka framework set karta hai. [Q1]
- Written Constitution ki tradition United States of America se shuru hui. Source ke mutabik U.S. Constitution duniya ka first written Constitution aur shortest written Constitution hai, jisme 7 Articles hain. [Q29]

2. USA — Judicial Review & Federal Court

- Judicial Review ka concept Indian Constitution ne United States Constitution se adopt kiya. Courts legislative, executive aur administrative actions ko Constitution ke against test kar sakte hain. [Q2]
- Judicial Review ka system India aur U.S.A. dono mein exist karta hai. [Q3]
- India aur America ke federal systems mein common feature: Constitution ki interpretation ke liye Federal Supreme Court. Source explanation note karta hai ki U.S.A. mein Union aur State level par separate judicial systems hain, jabki India single citizenship provide karta hai. [Q4]

3. Canada — Federal System, Union of States & Residual Powers

- Indian Federal System / Indian Federalism ka pattern Canada se inspired hai. [Q5, Q6]
- 'Union of States' ka concept British North America Act, 1867 (Constitution of Canada) se derived hai. Article 1(1): India, that is Bharat, shall be a Union of States. [Q7]
- Strong Centre wala federal system, Centre ke paas residuary powers, Governor ki appointment by Centre aur Supreme Court ki advisory jurisdiction jaise features Canada se adopt hue — isliye 'Residual Powers of Centre — Australia' incorrect pair hai. [Q18]

4. Australia — Concurrent List

- Concurrent List Australia se borrowed hai. Is list ke subjects par Union aur State dono law bana sakte hain; ye Seventh Schedule mein hai. Source ke according originally 47 items the, baad mein 52 ho gaye. [Q8, Q9, Q10, Q11]

5. Ireland — DPSP & Rajya Sabha Nomination

- Directive Principles of State Policy (DPSP) Ireland se borrowed hain. Ye Part IV, Articles 36–51 mein hain; Court mein enforceable nahi, lekin governance ke fundamental principles maane gaye hain aur State ko laws banate waqt inhe apply karna hai. [Q12, Q13, Q14, Q15]
- Rajya Sabha / Council of States mein talent, qualification, experience aur service ko nomination ke through representation dene ka idea Irish Republic se influenced hai. [Q16]

6. USA — Fundamental Rights & Related Features

- Fundamental Rights U.S.A. / U.S. Bill of Rights se borrowed hain. Indian Constitution mein ye Part III, Articles 12–35 mein placed hain. [Q17, Q19, Q21, Q24, Q25, Q26, Q27]
- Source Q24 ke explanation mein Fundamental Rights ke groups: Equality (Art. 14–18), Freedom (Art. 19–22), Against Exploitation (Art. 23–24), Freedom of Religion (Art. 25–28), Cultural & Educational Rights (Art. 29–30), Constitutional Remedies (Art. 32). [Q24]
- Source Q24 additionally Vice-President ka post aur Independence of Judiciary ko bhi U.S.A. se taken features batata hai. [Q24]

7. Other Borrowed Features — UK, Germany, Japan, Russia

- Parliamentary System / Cabinet Government aur Rule of Law — British / U.K. Constitution se. [Q17, Q19, Q20]
- Emergency Provisions — Germany (Weimar Constitution) se. [Q17, Q18]
- 'Procedure established by Law' — Japan se. [Q20]
- Governor dwara Bill ko President ke consideration ke liye reserve karna — Canada se. [Q20]
- Fundamental Duties — Russian / former Soviet Union Constitution se inspired; source ke mutabik 42nd Amendment Act, 1976 se add hue aur recommendation Swaran Singh Committee ne ki. [Q22]

8. Important Match-the-Following — Master Source Map

- Master match: Fundamental Rights → U.S.A.; Parliamentary System → U.K.; Emergency Provisions → Germany; DPSP → Ireland. [Q17]
- Master match: Fundamental Rights → U.S. Bill of Rights; DPSP → Ireland; Cabinet Government → Britain; Union–State Relations → Canada. [Q19]
- Master match: Rule of Law → England; Procedure established by Law → Japan; Governor reserves Bill for President → Canada; Concurrent List → Australia. [Q20]
- Master match: DPSP → Ireland; Fundamental Rights → U.S.A.; Concurrent List → Australia; India as Union of States with greater powers to Union → Canada. [Q21]

9. Exam Traps — Election Commission & Longest Constitution

⚠ EXAM TRAP — Election Commission kisi foreign Constitution se borrowed nahi

- ▶ Source Q28 ke according Indian Constitution ka Election Commission provision duniya ke kisi Constitution se inspired nahi hai; correct option “None of the above” hai. [Q28]
- ▶ Same explanation mein President ke election ka method Ireland se inspired bataya gaya hai — Election Commission aur President-election method ko confuse mat karo. [Q28]

 ASSERTION-REASON — Longest Constitution vs Fundamental Rights

- ▶ Indian Constitution longest-written Constitution hai; source ke mutabik originally 22 Parts, 395 Articles aur 8 Schedules the. [Q23]
- ▶ Fundamental Rights U.S.A. se borrowed hona true hai, lekin ye lengthy Constitution ka correct explanation nahi. Isliye A aur R dono true, but R does not correctly explain A. [Q23]