

NATIONAL FOREST POLICY 1952 - FULL MIND MAP

Topic-wise | Hinglish | SSC / BPSC / BSSC / Railway

Topics in this chapter:

1. International Day of Forests - Theme
2. Recommended Forest Cover for Ecological Balance
3. Forest Classification under National Forest Policy 1952
4. National Forest Policy 1988 - Programmes
5. Core Objectives of National Forest Policy

1. International Day of Forests - Theme

- Forests and Sustainable cities - United Nations mahasabha ne 2012 mein 21 March ko antarrashtriy forest day (IDF) declared kiya. IDF sabhi type ke forests ke mahatv ka utsav manata hai aur unke per jagarukata badhata hai. [Q1]

2. Recommended Forest Cover for Ecological Balance

- India mein uchit ecological balance banaye rakhne ke liye country ki total land ke ek-tihai (33%) area par forest ya tree cover ki anushansa ki gayi hai. [Q2]
- India mein uchit ecological balance banaye rakhne ke liye country ki total land ke ek-tihai (33%) area par forest ya tree cover ki anushansa ki gayi hai. [Q3]
- India mein uchit ecological balance banaye rakhne ke liye country ki total land ke ek-tihai (33%) area par forest ya tree cover ki anushansa ki gayi hai. [Q4]
- One-third - India mein uchit ecological balance banaye rakhne ke liye country ki total land ke ek-tihai (33%) area par forest ya tree cover ki anushansa ki gayi hai. [Q5]

3. Forest Classification under National Forest Policy 1952

- national forest policy (1952) ke ke mutabik India mein forests ko is type vargikrit kiya gaya hai -; protected forest; national forest; gram forest; tree-bhumiyen. isse clear hai ki National Park forests ki is category mein shamil nahi hain. [Q6]

4. National Forest Policy 1988 - Programmes

- 1, 2 and 3 - national forest policy 1988 mein shamil hain - (i) vanikaran aur banjar land vikasa. [Q7]

5. Core Objectives of National Forest Policy

EXAM TRAP national forest policy, 1988 ke uddeshyon mein ecological balance, vanikaran aur samajik forestry dwara forest aur tree cover badhana aur forest conservation ke liye jan-movement khada karna shamil hai. policy mein country ki kam-se-kam ek-tihai land par forest ya tree cover ka national target bhi specified kiya gaya hai. koi ek option nirvavad roop se sahi nahi hai; isliye sawal ko vivadit (*) chihnit kiya gaya hai. [Q8]